

Modal verbs practice

Task: Rewrite, using the correct perfect modal

1. It's possible that she forgot to feed the cat.
a. She
2. Buying that short skirt was a mistake.
a. I
3. I'm sure Tom was at home when I called him.
a. Tom
4. You were right, coming on foot wasn't a great idea. It would have been quite faster by the bus.
a. I
5. I don't believe that was Mark. He's at the other end of the world right now.
a. You

Task: Must, have to, need:

1. Although you (pay) _____ that money back yesterday, thank you!
2. Dogs (walk) _____ in the park, look at the sign!
3. We (do) _____ that part of the homework, it's just an extra exercise.
4. Invitations (send) _____ that early, I told you! All of them appeared to be wrong! Now what?
5. You (bring) _____ children under 10 in this restaurant, it's a rule!
6. You (take) _____ a coat, it's warm already.
7. Uniforms (wear) _____ every single day!

Task: Continuous modals:

1. I (relax) _____ at home now if I didn't have to work. (probability)
2. You (not work) _____ that late last night! (criticism)
3. I can hear her singing. She (still have) _____ a singing class (deduction)
4. They (not work) _____ now. They are on a holiday in Hawaii.
5. She (still work) _____ on that project. I don't trust her, though.